PODER Health Equity Collective Summit

WOODBURN, Ore.- PODER, Oregon's Latino Leadership Network, is excited to announce the PODER Health Equity Collective Summit on April 10, 2023, at the Salem Convention Center in Salem, OR from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Latino leaders are organizing the Health Equity Collective to reduce health disparities and improve access across Oregon.

The PODER Health Equity Council (PHEC) is dedicated to improving the health of Latinos and assists the Oregon Health Authority (OHA) and Coordinated Care Organizations (CCOs) in meeting the goal and expectations of Medicaid policy.

The coalition of Latino focused health care providers and community benefit organizations strive to improve the trust Latino people feel in accessing government-funded services while improving health equity and outcomes for Latinos in Oregon.

The summit will feature several panels of community leaders, providers, and consumers from all parts of Oregon including Congresswoman Andrea Salinas and AFT President Jaime Rodriguez as speakers.

This is an exciting opportunity for you to support our Latino community. Join PODER in building a network of culturally specific organizations, providers, social service organizations, and consumers by attending our live video conference <https://poderoregon.org/summit-form>. Together, we will improve the well-being of Latinos living in Oregon.
